

Case called out before National Lok Adalat.

The petitioner and the respondent are present. The counsel for petitioner is present.

The petitioner and respondent submit that they have settled the matter since the birth certificate is necessary for all future documentation and the petitioner is in need of immediate relief. There is no coercion, undue influence or any threat to any of the parties. The parties have agreed to compromise the matter.

The joint memo filed by the petitioner and respondents is hereby accepted.

The matter is settled in the Lok Adalath.

Sd/-
Prl. Civil Judge & JMFC., Hosapete.