

Before Lok-Adalath Bench, Hadagali
Case called out.

Plaintiff and defendant are present along with their advocates.

The plaintiff and defendant have compromised their dispute. Suit is for DECLARATION AND POSSESSION, PERMANENT INJUNCTION. Both parties have submitted a compromise petition.

The contents of the compromise petition is read over and explained to the parties. The parties have admitted and consented to the terms of compromise petition.

The parties submit that there are no other legal heirs or successors to the suit property.

I have perused compromise petition, the parties before the Court submit that they have voluntarily accepted the compromise petition and signed the same.

I am satisfied that the compromise is not against the public policy. Hence, compromise petition is accepted.

The suit is decreed in terms of compromise petition and the same shall form part and parcel of the decree.

The parties shall bear their own costs.

Draw Lok Adalat Decree accordingly.
