

Case called out. Both the parties to the suit are present. And their counsels are also present. Both the advocates have filed application U/o 23 Rule 3 of CPC to compromise the matter among the parties.

Upon enquiry the parties have submitted that they appeared before the court voluntarily without any coercion, undue influence and misrepresentation. Further they have submitted that there is no force or threat in filing the present application.

The contents of the application is read-over to the both the parties in the language best known to them. The parties have consented for the contents of the application.

On perusal of the application it appears to be genuine one.

The parties have produced the xerox copy of the adhaar card and same is cross checked with the original which they have brought. Satisfied. Hence, compromised petition is accepted.

Suit of the plaintiff is hereby disposed as compromised.

Draw decree accordingly.
