

Case called out before
Lok-Adalat on 11.07.2026.

Both parties and their counsel present and filed compromise petition.

Both parties have filed compromise petition under Order 23 Rule 3 of CPC and also filed affidavit and Aadhar cards of parties. In the compromise petition it is stated that, they have compromised the dispute in its entirety/fully. The petition is duly signed by both parties and their respective Advocates.

The contents of the compromise petition have been read over to the parties in Kannada Language which is their mother tongue.

They have understood the contents of the same.

This Court is of the opinion that, the parties have compromised the

OS No.276/2015

matter of their own volition. There are no factual and legal inhibitions to accept the compromise. Accordingly, following order is passed:

ORDER

Compromise petition is accepted.

Suit is decreed in terms of compromise petition.

The compromise petition shall be part and parcel of the decree.

Draw final decree as per the terms and conditions of compromise petition.

Non Judicial Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator