

21/04/2026

Case is advanced.

Sri.SVP., advocate filed vakalatnama for defendant No.1 to 4 and filed application under Order 9 Rule 7 of CPC., for setting-aside the exparte order passed against defendant No.1 to 4.

Counsel for plaintiff submitted no objection to I.A.

Heard and IA is allowed.

Exparte order against defendants is set-aside.

The plaintiff and defendant No.1 to 4 and their respective counsel present. They submitted that, there is a chance of settlement. Matter may be referred to Daily Lok Adalat. In view of the submission, matter is referred to Daily Lok Adalat.

MATTER IS TAKEN UP BEFORE DAILY
LOK ADALAT.

Plaintiff and defendant No.1 to 4
and their counsel present.

Negotiation held.

Both parties have agreed to compromise the matter. Accordingly, they filed their joint compromise petition along with their ID proof. As per the terms of joint compromise petition, the suit item No.J, K and L along with non-sited properties bearing Sy.No.191/2
measuring 6 acres 30 guntas, Sy.No.191/3 measuring 2 acres both are situated at Rodagi village and Sy.No.75/3 measuring 2 acres 17 guntas which are standing in the name of plaintiff and fallen to the share of plaintiff.

The suit item No.C to H and M are fallen to the share of defendant No.1.

The suit item No.A, B, I, N and O are fallen to the share of defendant No.3.

The defendant No.2 is being the wife of defendant No.1 and mother of plaintiff and defendant No.3. She is not getting any share in the suit properties.

The defendant No.4 is being the wife of defendant No.3. She is also not getting any share in the suit properties. The defendant No.2 to 4 are relinquished their right in favour of plaintiff and other defendants. The terms of joint compromise petition is read over to both parties in the kannada language known to them. They voluntarily agreed upon the same. Further, both parties voluntarily agreed that, the non-suited properties which were allotted to the share of plaintiff were not included, the same in the suit schedule. However, at the time of compromise, even the suit properties can be included. Accordingly, the non-suited properties were also included in the compromise. For that, other defendants have voluntarily agreed upon the same. The terms of compromise is lawful one. Hence, we proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The joint compromise petition filed by both parties is hereby allowed.

The suit of the plaintiff is decreed in terms of joint compromise petition.

The parties have already taken their possession of shares.

The joint compromise petition shall be the part of decree.

Draw final decree accordingly.

Both parties are directed to furnish the requisite stamp for drawing final decree.

For acceptance of the same.

Call before National Lok Adalat on 11.07.2026.

Sd/-
Non Judicial Conciliator	Judicial Conciliator.
Indi	Indi

11.07.2026

Matter is taken up before National Lok-Adalat.

Both parties have compromised the case and filed joint compromise petition before the daily Lok Adalat. Same is accepted before this National Lok Adalat.

Draw decree accordingly.

Sd/-
Non Judicial Conciliator.	Judicial, Conciliator.