

State Vs. Unknown _____

Present: Sh. Jitender Malik, Ld. APP.
None for the complainant.

File put up in National Lok Adalat. Court notice issued to the complainant has not been served. A perusal of the case file reveals that since the filing of present final report court notices have been issued on various occasions but till date neither the court notice has been served nor the presence of complainant has been procured. It is pertinent to note here that repeated directions have been given to the concerned SHO through Ld. APP to get the court notice served. Since the present final report is pending for a long time therefore, in these compelled circumstances, fresh court notice be issued to the complainant for 18.03.2023 through concerned SHO. It is made clear that in case of non-service of court notice, concerned SHO is directed to appear in person before the court and submit his reasons in writing through affidavit for non-service of the court notice. A copy of this order be sent to concerned SHO for his information and necessary compliance.
