

Cril.Misc.No.1000/2025

The Ld.APP has filed the memo of appearance for respondent and counsel for petitioners present.

ORDER

Name Dayananda S/o. Channappa
Poojari

Mother's Name -Kalavati

Place of birth - Ahirasang village,

Tq:Indi,Dist:Vijayapur.

| Conciliator                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Judicial Conciliator                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. The conciliator is a neutral third party who facilitates the communication between the disputing parties. 2. The conciliator does not impose a decision on the parties. 3. The conciliator encourages the parties to reach a mutually agreeable solution. 4. The conciliator is not bound by the rules of evidence and procedure. 5. The conciliator is not a judge and does not have the authority to enforce a decision. | 1. The judicial conciliator is a neutral third party who facilitates the communication between the disputing parties. 2. The judicial conciliator does not impose a decision on the parties. 3. The judicial conciliator encourages the parties to reach a mutually agreeable solution. 4. The judicial conciliator is not bound by the rules of evidence and procedure. 5. The judicial conciliator is not a judge and does not have the authority to enforce a decision. |