ORDER

This petition is filed by the petitioner/accused under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita-
2023 (in short 'BNSS-2023'), seeking regular bail in Crime

No.03/2026, registered by the respondent-police, for the offences punishable under Sections 94, 69, 88, 352, 351(3) of BNS-2023.

2) The petitioner has presented his petition with various grounds.

3) The learned Public Prosecutor after service of notice appeared in this case and filed detailed objection with C.D. by praying to reject the bail petition having no grounds made out by the petitioner.

4) Heard and perused the grounds of the petition, objection and also documents on record.

5) The following points arise for my determination:

1) Whether the petition U/sec.483 of BNSS is deserves to be allowed?

2) What order?

6) My findings on the above points are as follows:

Point No.1 : In the Affirmative.

Point No.2 : As per final order;
for the following;

REASONS

7) POINT No.1:- The brief facts of the prosecution case are that, on 08.01.2026 at about 10.00 a.m., complaint is lodged before Gurumitkal P.S by the Senior Superintendent, CDPO Gurumitkal with the allegation that based on credible information when she has visited spot found one 6-7 months featus thrown some unknown person and the same has been informed to government hospital Gurumitakal and after examination of featus it was declared dead. Accordingly, Crime No.03/2026 has been registered against unknown persons for the offence punishable U/Sec.94 of BNS. Subsequently, on 08.05.2026 victim came to the police station and given her statement. Accordingly, the other provisions of BNS are inserted and on arresting the accused he confessed the guilt and then arrested and remain in judicial custody.

8) The petitioner being detained in custody filed this petition on the grounds that he is innocent and law abiding citizen. He has not committed any alleged offences. The I.O has submitted charge sheet by completing investigation. There is no necessity to continued his detention in custody. He is the permanent residence with depending family members and ready to abide by any conditions and prays to enlarge him on bail.

9) The learned Public Prosecutor has also filed objection to the petition by contending that the accused committed serious offences. The I.O has completed investigation and submitted charge sheet with sufficient evidence. The statement of victim recorded under Sec.183 of BNSS has supported the prosecution case. Hence, he prays to reject the bail petition.

10) The facts of the case reveal that initially FIR has been registered against unknown person and subsequently after about four months of registering FIR victim came to police station and given her statement. Based on her statement accused has been arrested and on his confession statement has been recorded.

11) It is clearly reveal that the prosecution case is based on confession statement of the accuse and the statement of the victim given after more than four months of alleged incident.

12) The prosecution has not alleged any criminal antecedents to this petitioner. This petitioner is the permanent residence with his own occupation and appeared to has depending family members.

13) Further there appears no necessity to continue detention of the petitioner in custody. Even the allegations are not punishable either life imprisonment or death sentence.

14) Hence, by considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the opinion that accused/petitioner is entitled for bail subject to reasonable conditions to satisfy objection of learned Public Prosecutor. Thus, I answer Point No.1 in the Affirmative.

15) POINT No.2: In view of my findings on point No.1, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The petition filed by the petitioner/accused under Section 483 of BNSS., is hereby allowed.
