

ORDERS ON V

The suit is one partition and separate possession.

2. The plaintiffs have filed I.A.No.V U/o 1 rule 10 r/w 151 of CPC praying this court to permit them to implead the persons shown in the IA as proposed defendant No. 2 to 4 on the ground that in view of the contention raised by the sole defendant that sisters are also necessary party the present application came to be filed.

3. The proposed defendant have not filed any objection.

4. Heard plaintiff counsel .

5. On perusal of averments made in the written statement, it appears that the defendant has taken contention that suit is bad for non joinder of necessary parties ie the sisters of plaintiffs and defendants. The plaintiffs have filed this application seeking the permission of this court to implead their sisters as defendants to cure the defect. As this court is satisfied that they are necessary parties. I proceed to pass the following
