

That, the Petitioner and Respondent No.2 and their learned counsel are present.

That, both the parties have filed a joint memo. That I have perused the contents of said joint compromise petition.

That, both the parties have amicably settled the matter for Rs.5,60,000/-. That I have satisfied with terms and conditions of said joint compromise petition and both the parties are permitted to compromise the matter as per their said joint compromise petition.

That, the learned counsel for the petitioner has filed a memo stating that, they have no claim against the respondent No.1. Hence, petition is dismissed against respondent No.1.

That, on deposit of said compensation amount by the Respondent No.2, the office is to release entire amount in favour the petitioner through E-Banking on due identification. That, the draw the compromise decree accordingly.

Non Judicial Conciliator

Judicial
Conciliator