

That, the plaintiff and defendants No.1 to 3 are present and their learned counsel are present. That, Shri MDP learned counsel filed power for defendant No.3. That, the mediator has submitted a report that, parties have settled the matter. That, both the parties have filed joint compromise petition Under Order 23 Rule 3 of CPC. I have gone through the contents of the said joint compromise petition and read over to both the parties and they have agreed for the same. That, I have gone through the contents of joint compromise petition and satisfied. That, both the parties are permitted to compromise the matter as per their said joint compromise petition. That, draw the final decree accordingly.

Sr. Civil Judge and JMFC,
Shahapur