The matter is old one of the year 2022. Record show that, though summons and bailable warrant were issued against the witnesses on several dates, but, their presence could not be secured. The offence alleged against accused is punishable under section 65(e) of Maharashtra Prohibition Act. Considering all the facts and circumstances in the matter, in my opinion no fruitful purpose will be served by keeping the proceedings alive as their appear no chance of securing presence of witnesses by the prosecution. Hence, I pass following order.
