R1 and R2 By Adv. Vincent Joseph & Divya.R

This petition having been finally heard on 26.03.2026 and the court on the same day passed the following:

ORDER

Petition for temporary injunction restraining defendants from fabricating any deeds, trespassing into plaint schedule property and committing any waste therein.

The above petition was allowed on 21.03.2025.

First respondent filed affidavit stating that first and second respondents will not forcibly evict petitioners from plaint schedule property and interfere with their peaceful residence therein. First and second respondents sought permission to enter plaint schedule property to conduct poojas and make offerings to the family deity therein.

Heard both sides. Perused records.

Considering the undertaking of respondents, I am satisfied that the order of temporary injunction is liable to be modified.

In the result the order of interim injunction is modified and respondents are restrained from forcibly evicting petitioners from plaint schedule property and interfering with their peaceful residence therein, until further orders. However the same will not stand in the way of first and second respondents from entering plaint schedule property and conducting poojas and offering prayers to the family deity therein.

No order as to costs.

Pronounced me in the open court on 26th day of March, 2026.
