

In The Court Of Md. Gulam Rasul
Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Araria
Civil Court Araria(Bihar)

Complaint Case-2095/2022

Date of Order	Order with initials of the Magistrate	Remarks
18-01-2023	The complainant is absent. Today this file is put before me for record hearing . The present complaint petition has been filed by one Md. Rafid (herein after termed as “The Complainant) against 5 persons named as accused in the complaint petition. The Ld. C.J.M Araria was pleased to transfer the case u/s 192(1) of Cr.pc to the court on dated 10-11-2022 for inquiry and disposal as per law. Complainant didn't recorded his statement u/s 200 of Cr.p.c. and this matter is put up for statement u/s 200 of Cr.p.c. on date 18-11-2022,24-11-2022,03-12-2022,13-12-2022,04-01-2023; In spite of sufficient time given for statement u/s 200 of Cr.p.c. but complainant didn't turn up on various dated, The court has granted last opportunity for recording of statement u/s 200 of Cr.p.c. on dated 12-01-2023, neither attendance has been given nor statement u/s 200 of Cr.p.c. has been recorded which clearly reflects that complainant is not interested to pursue the matter. Therefore, considering all facts and circumstances of this case as well as After perusal of the whole material present on the case record and after considering the facts and circumstances of the case and in the absence of SA and any oral evidence, this court finds no sufficient ground for proceeding any of the penal provisions of the law against the accused as named in the complaint petition and hence the same stands dismissed U/s 203 of Cr.P.C. Moreover, “law helps those who are vigilant about their right not to those who are in deep slumber”. ORDER 1. The complaint case is hereby DISMISSED under section 203 of Crpc. 2. The O/C is directed to deposit the file to the Record Room within the time bound & order upload on C.I.S. Dictated sd/- J.M. 1st Class Araria

Schedule XLII- High Court No.(J)8a [old (M)164]

Schedule XLII- High Court M 21. [old (M)108 and (109)]