ORDER

This is a petition filed under section 23 (1) of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 (hereinafter the Act.)

2. Perused the petition, affidavit and documents.

3. Heard. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the respondents committed domestic violence on the petitioner and they are interfering with the peaceful life of the petitioner. The said act is to be prohibited. Hence, the petition.

4. I have perused the records. From the affidavit and the petition, it is prima facie disclosed that the respondents have committed domestic violence. It is satisfied that the issuance of notice at this stage would defeat the object of granting this order by delay and would cause irreparable loss and injuries to the petitioner. Hence, an ad-interim exparte order is passed in the following lines until further orders:

- 1. The respondents are hereby prohibited from committing any sort of physical, emotional or verbal abuse on the petitioner especially by communicating the petitioner through mobile phone or any other electronic devices.*
- 2. The S.H.O concerned shall assist the petitioner in implementing direction No. 1 in this order on a written petition filed by the petitioner in this behalf.*
- 3. Issue emergent notice to the respondent to appear on 04.06.2026.*

(Dictated to the Confidential Assistant typed by her, corrected and pronounced by me in open court, this the 1st day of June, 2026)
