Heard, perused the records and passed the following :

ORDER

- 1) This petition is filed under section 23 (2) of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 alleging various incidents of domestic violence against the respondents.
- 2) Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner. Perused the documents. The counsel submitted that the first respondent is the son of the petitioner and the second respondent is the daughter in law of the petitioner. The respondents tortures the petitioner physically and mentally continuously.
- 3) The Hon'ble High Court of Kerala in the case of Dr. Preceline George @ Antony Preceline George v. State of Kerala and another, 2010 (1) KHC 417 has held Ex parte ad interim orders can be passed only if urgent orders are warranted and Magistrates shall take necessary care and caution before passing such an order.

4) From the submissions of the learned counsel and on perusing the documents and from the reasons stated in the affidavit this court is prima facie satisfied that the respondents are committing acts of domestic violence against the petitioner. Hence I am of the view that the delay that will be caused due to the issuance of notice to the respondents would defeat the very purpose of this application. Thus, notice to the respondents are dispensed with. Hence an ad interim order is passed in favour of the petitioner as follows:-

1. Respondents are hereby restrained from subjecting the petitioner to any kind of domestic violence in the nature of physical and mental abuse.
2. Respondents are hereby restrained from causing any obstruction to the petitioner's peaceful residence in the shared household named Pettayil Kizhakkekara, near Minarva Theatre, Market Junction, Kottarakkara.
3. The SHO, Kottarakkara is hereby directed to implement this order in letter and spirit and offer necessary protection to the petitioner.
4. Communicate this order to the respondents, to the Women Protection Officer and to SHO, Kottarakkara.
5. Issue notice to the respondents.

Pronounced in open court on this the 19th day of December, 2025.
