This is a case instituted upon the final report submitted by the Sub Inspector of Police, Chalissery Police Station in crime No. 248/2019 alleging the commission of offence punishable under sections 461 and 471 of the Indian Penal Code.

2. The summary of the prosecution case is as follows: On 14/07/2019 at about 18:30 hours, the accused, having purchased a scooter bearing Chassis No. MBLJFW016JGA13443 and Engine No. JF33ABJGA11846 in his name, failed to register the vehicle with the Motor Vehicles Department as required by law. Instead, he fabricated a registration number KL 52 N 8524 and affixed it to the vehicle, using it as if it were a genuine registration number. Thus the accused are alleged to have committed the aforesaid offences.

3. The accused was appeared before the court and he was released on bail. The accused was represented by a counsel of his choice. Thereafter the accused absconded.

4. On 19/02/2026, the accused was surrendered before the court. Copies of all relevant prosecution records were furnished to him under section 207 of Cr.P.C. The accused expressed his willingness to plead guilty and hence he was released on self bond. The report of the probation officer was called for in this matter.

5. Today the accused appeared before the court the charge framed for the offence under section 461 and 471 IPC and was read over and explained to the accused to which he pleaded guilty. The implication of conviction and seriousness of offences were elaborated to the accused, despite explaining the consequences to him, the accused remained steadfast in his stand. Therefore I am satisfied that the accused pleaded guilty, voluntarily and without any compulsion and fully knowing about the consequences of pleading guilty hence accepted. The accused is found guilty for the offence punishable under section 461 and 471 of the Indian Penal Code and he is convicted thereunder. On perusing the social background report, it is found that the accused is fit to be under the probation officer. Having regard to the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, I find that the petitioner is liable to be released on probation of good conduct in exercise of the powers conferred under Sections 4, 5 and 11 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958.

In the result, the accused is ordered to be released on probation of good conduct subject to the following conditions:

1. The convict shall execute bond for ₹ 50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand only).
2. The convict shall, in the meantime, keep peace and good behaviour.
3. The convict shall, during the period of two years, remain under the supervision of the District Probation Officer, Palakkad.
4. In the event of any default on the part of the convict in complying with the above directions, the District Probation Officer shall bring the said aspect to the notice of the court, if convinced about the above violation, shall proceed with the steps for enforcing the sentence imposed upon the petitioner.
5. Forward copy of this order to the District Probation Officer of Palakkad for ensuring compliance.
