This is the application for bail filed by the petitioner/accused u/s.480 of B.N.S.S.

2. The offences alleged against the petitioner/accused are punishable u/ss.331(4), 305(a) and 238 of B.N.S. The petitioner/accused was arrested and produced before this court on 05.06.2025 and was remanded to judicial custody.

3. The prosecution case is that, on 03.06.2025 at 13.45 hours and at 14.30 hours, the accused committed theft of a USB set worth about ₹1,000/- from Aji Musicals and a fan worth about ₹3000/- from Crown Electronics in Vallangi, respectively. On 05.06.2025 at 16.30 hours, the accused also committed theft of 10 litres of Lubricant Oil worth ₹3,000/-, which were displayed on the front side of Om Sakthi Lubricant in Vallangi. It is alleged that the accused stole the articles altogether valued at ₹7,000/-. Thus, the accused is alleged to have committed the above offences.

4. Copy of the bail application was served to the learned Assistant Public Prosecutor. He objected the bail application.

5. Heard both sides and perused the case records.

6. The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused submitted that the accused is innocent and is ready to oblige any condition imposed by this court. On perusal of the records, it is seen that the final report was already filed. The accused has been in judicial custody since 05.06.2025. Hence, further keeping the petitioner/accused in judicial custody is not necessary. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the opinion that the accused can be released on bail by imposing stringent conditions. Hence, the petition is allowed.

In the result, the petitioner/accused is released on bail on the following conditions:-

1. The petitioner/accused shall execute a bond for ₹.50,000/- (Fifty thousand rupees) with two solvent sureties each for the like sum.
