By Adv. K G Santhoshkumar.

This petition having been heard on 04.12.2025 and on the same day, the court passed the following:-

COMMON ORDER

These are the applications filed by the petitioner/ 1st accused in the above case.

2.The offences alleged against the petitioner are punishable under sections 341 and 323 of IPC and sections 3(1)(s) and 3(2)(va) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act.

3. According to the petitioner/ 1st accused, he states that he is working abroad. Now, he needs to go back to abroad in connection with his job. He is the only bread winner of his family. If he could not go abroad, it would cause irreparable hardship and loss. Hence, he sought permission to travel abroad and exemption of his personal appearance.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he is innocent and the case is a foisted one. He has instructed his counsel to appear for him, answering his plea on court charge and questioning under section 313 Cr.P.C. He undertook he would never dispute his identity during the trial.

5. The learned Public Prosecutor opposed the applications, contending that his exemption will affect the trial of the case.

6. Heard both sides. Perused the records.

7. It is submitted that the petitioner will not raise any question of identity during the trial. The evidence is not yet started till this date. Considering the facts and circumstances, I am of the view that these petitions can be allowed on following conditions: -

1. Petitioner is permitted to go abroad for a period of one year and is exempted from his personal appearance for that period and shall be represented through his pleader who holds Vakalath.
2. He shall file an affidavit stating the job details, address, place of work etc, within seven days from today.
3. He shall also undertake that he will not raise any question or dispute regarding identity during trial.
4. He shall appear before the Court as and when required

(Dictated to the Confidential Assistant, transcribed and typed by him, corrected by me and pronounced in open court on this the 4th day of December, 2025).
