Present: None for plaintiff

Mr. Sandeep Verma, Ld. Counsel for defendants along with defendants

It is argued by Ld. Counsel for defendant that despite matter being settled the plaintiff is deliberately not appearing before the court for recording of statement.

Ld. Counsel for defendant further pressed that the suit may be dismissed for non appearance of plaintiff. Ld. Counsel for defendant also informed that he has telephonically contacted counsel for plaintiff, however he informed that there are no instructions from the plaintiff.

Be that as it may, matter be taken up at 2 PM.

Be awaited for plaintiff.

At 12 PM,

Mr. Ujjwal K. Priyadarshi, Ld. Counsel for plaintiff appeared along with Adv. Aashish Kumar and requested that the matter be taken up. It is stated by Ld. counsel for plaintiff that the instructions are yet to be sought from the plaintiff.

Bare perusal of record reveals that on the last date of hearing also, none has appeared on behalf of plaintiff. It appears that plaintiff is deliberately avoiding to appear before the court.

Be that as it may, one last and final opportunity is granted to plaintiff to appear and proceed further with the matter. Plaintiff is further burdened a cost of Rs.10,000/- to be paid to defendant for wastage of judicial time, since repeated adjournments are being sought by him.

Now to come up on 27.04.2026.

Plaintiff is directed to appear physically before this court on NDOH.
