

1st Addl. Civil Judge and JMFC-II Court Bidar.

ORDER

Case called out before Lok-Adalath. Plaintiff and defendants present, both counsels are present. Both plaintiff and defendants have filed compromise petition under order 23 rule 3 of CPC. The Compromise petition is signed by the plaintiff and defendants and presented by their counsels. The contents of the compromise petition is read over and explained in Kannada language known to both the parties. Both plaintiff and defendants have understood the contents of the compromise petition and submit that they have no objection to decree the suit in terms of compromise petition. Hence, in view of the submission of the both parties the compromise petition is allowed and suit of the plaintiff is decreed in terms of compromise petition. Draw decree accordingly. Office is directed to refund the court fee to plaintiff according to law.

Sd/-

1st Addl. Civil Judge, Bidar.