Order Below Exh.1 In Civil Misc. Appln.(Delay) No.176/2024
(Rajeshkumar Rana Vs. Ganesh Ajabe and ors.)

1. This is a Civil Misc. Application under section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act, for condonation of delay in preferring the petition regarding compensation for permanent physical disability.
2. The applicant is resident of Zharkhand State and the accident took place at Torangan Ghat, Nashik. The applicant submits that on 26.12.2022 he met with an accident and sustained grievous injuries to his thigh and spine, due to which he was unable to walk. He was under mental trauma after the accident. When he recovered from the incident he came at Maharashtra and collected information about the accident from the concerned police station. As the case papers were in Marathi Language, he could not understand those and time spent for the same. Therefore he could not file the petition in time. Hence, he prayed for condonation of delay.
3. Only respondent no.3 appeared and strongly objected the application.
4. Upon perusal of documents on record it appears that the applicant was suffering from accidental injuries. It also appears that he is resident of Zharkhand State and therefore could not file the petition. Considering the circumstances of the applicant prevailing at that time, it would be proper to condone the delay and to grant opportunity to exhaust his right to file petition. Hence, the following order.

ORDER

1. Application for condonation of delay is hereby allowed.
2. The delay caused to file petition is hereby condoned.
