

ORDER BELOW EXH.1 IN R.C.C.NO.198/2018

From the record it appears that informant and witnesses deposed that accused obtained loan on various fixed deposits of customer without their consent. The prosecution is relying on the various documentary evidence filed on record. Both parties did not argue on the point that whether any document for loan proposal was submitted by the accused or register of fixed deposit loan was maintained. Argument on the said aspect is essential to decide controversy between the parties. Hence, parties are directed to argue on the said aspect. Accordingly, case posted for argument on 16.03.2023.
