

ORDER BELOW EXH.11

1. This is an application filed by defendant for permission to file written-statement on record.
2. Read the application. Plaintiff opposed the application. Heard both sides. Perused record. The defendant has not filed his written-statement on record within statutory period.
3. Perusal of the record, shows that plaintiff's relief is specially against defendants. The plaintiff has filed this suit for permanent injunction and othe consequential reliefs. So for proper adjudication of the matter, it is necessary to go through the contention of defendant.
4. Moving of this application, shows that defendant is willing to contest the matter. Hence, granting opportunity to the defendant would not caused any prejudice to the plaintiff. Hence, as it is necessary for fair trial, both the parties must be given opportunity to prove their cases. Therefore, in the interest of justice the following order is passed.
