

ORDER BELOW EXH-1 IN CRI. BAIL APPLICATION NO. 57/2026.MHAH130001302026(Ravindra Babasaheb Gayke Vs. State)

1. This application is for anticipatory bail.
2. Read FIR. It is alleged that on 18/02/2026 at about 2.00 p.m. while informant was passing near house of accused, accused persons restrained her saying that the pathway and land belonged to them. Both the accused abused her, pushed her, slapped her. Accused Ravindra caught hold her hand, pulled her sari. Accused Avinash torn her blouse.
3. Prosecution filed say and opposed this application. In the say, it is stated that informant and accused persons reside in the same village.
4. For the incident that occurred on 18/02/2026, crime came to be registered on 21/02/2026.
5. Ld. Adv. For the accused filed cash memo of purchase of a machine dated 18.02.2026 of Suyog Agro Engineering Works, Pandharewadi, Tal. Pandharpur, he argued that name of accused Ravindra Gayke is mentioned in this cash memo. He submitted that accused was in Pandharewadi, tal. Panduarpur on the date i.e. mentioned in the FIR.

6. Ld. Advocate for accused has filed copy of plaint in RCS 673/20025. On perusal of the copy, it can be gathered that accused Ravindra is plaintiff and informant is listed as defendant no.2.

7. There is considerable delay in lodging the FIR. Parties are having inimical terms. Accused has permanent place of residence. He will not flee away from justice. Considering these aspects, it will be proper to grant anticipatory bail. Hence, I pass following order.
