

MHAH220000722021

Cr.M.A. No. 17/2021

Tejaswini Kishor Kale Vs.
Kishor Gandisha Kale

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

(Passed on 09/03/2026)

In view of directions issued by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court, Bombay to conduct Special drive from 09/03/2026 to 13/12/2026 to dispose of cases as per section 256 of Cr.PC./Section 279 of BNSS and Section 258 of the Cr.PC./Section 281 of BNSS.

2. I have perused the record of present case. In present case it reveals from the record that the complainant is absent since long. By passing order below Exh.1 dated 12/02/2026 matter is kept for dismissal order. Complainant has not taken steps. It seems that the complainant has lost interest in the matter. There is no point in keeping the matter languishing on board. Therefore, proceedings deserves to be dismissed as per section 256 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. Therefore, I proceed to pass the following order :-

ORDER

Case is dismissed for want of prosecution by complainant as per section 256 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Date : 09/03/2026.

(R. B. Raut)
Judicial Magistrate, First Class,
Karjat, Dist.Ahmednagar.
(Court No.2)