

ORDER BELOW EXH.36

(Passed on 30-01-2026)

Defendant no.6 has prayed for permission to file his written statement on record.

2] It is submitted that he did not receive copies of temporary injunction application and therefore, he could not file the written statement and reply to the suit.

3] The application is opposed by the plaintiffs on the say that no reason is mentioned in the application for delay caused to file written statement.

4] Heard.

5] For the purpose of fair justice and in order to decide the matter in effective manner it is necessary to accord an opportunity to defendant no. 6 to permit to file his written statement on record. The inconvenience caused to the plaintiffs cant be compensated in terms of costs. Hence the following order is passed.

ORDER

Application Exh.36 is allowed subject to payment of costs of Rs. 700/- (Rs. Seven Hundred only) to be paid by defendant no.6 to the plaintiffs.
