Since 02/15/24 at Exh-12, matter is pending for further/remaining cross-examinations of the complainant, due to non-availability of some documents with the complainant, which complainant agreed to produce in court. However this date no such documents is/are produced by the complainant. Hence accused to cross-examine complainant on next date without fail. In absence of such document by complainant, adverse-inference if any may be drawn at the time of judgment. Complainant to remain present on next date. Failure of either party will attract appropriate order.
