CASE No: NI Act/2247/2023

M/s Mahesh Industries Vs M/s MF Handicraft

Present: Shri Adesh Gupta, Advocate for complainant.

Case was fixed for appearance of accused. Perusal of case file shows that vide separate statement executing official had made the proclamation in accordance with law on 10.06.2026. Hence, mandatory period of 30 days has expired. This court is satisfied that the compliance as per law under Section 82 Cr.P.C. has been made. Despite repeated calls of the case, accused Mohammad Farman, proprietor of M/s M.F. Handicraft did not put in appearance. Period of 30 days has already been over since the publication of proclamation. It seems that accused Farman, proprietor of M/s M.F. Handicraft is concealing or absconding herself/himself. No further wait is justified thus accused Farman, proprietor of M/s M.F. Handicraft is declared as proclaimed person.

Intimation in this regard be sent to PO staff and SHO concerned with the direction to enter the name of the accused in the relevant register maintained as per the police rules and with the further direction to arrest the accused and produce him/her before the court as soon as possible by taking all necessary steps as per law. This intimation is being further sent to SHO concerned to facilitate him to lodge an FIR against the proclaimed person for commission of offence punishable under Section 209 of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

Vide separate statement learned counsel for complainant stated that he close the evidence under Section 299 Cr.P.C. on behalf of complainant and he has no knowledge of property of accused for proceedings under Section 83 Cr.P.C. Thus, proceeding under Section 83 Cr.P.C. cannot be invoked. File be consigned to record room, after due compliance with a red note that accused has already been declared as proclaimed person in the present case and file be taken up on the appearance of the accused.
