

ORDER BELOW EXH.5

(Passed on 16/08/2024)

The revision applicant has moved this application for granting stay to the proceeding in R.C.C.No.752/2021 State Vs. Prashant till the decision of the revision.

2. The learned counsel for revision applicant argued that the learned trial Court record the evidence of the prosecution witness in favour of notes and that is why the Court has passed such order to the effect that this evidence can not be read. But in spite of such order, the learned trial Court proceed to record the statement of accused u/sec. 313 of Cr.P.C. If the matter is proceed then prejudice will cause to be applicant. He has hope to succeed in revision. So it is urged to grant stay. It appears that the learned trial Court rejected the application of the present applicant on 12/06/2024 and now proceeding further. I found urgency in the matter for granting stay. Hence, I pass the following order:

ORDER

- 1 Application (Exh.5) is allowed as under.
  - A. The proceeding of the stay order dated 12/06/2024 is granted till next date.
2. The appellant is directed to expedite the matter.
3. Inform concerned Court, accordingly.
