R.C.S. No. 47/2026

Prakash Eknath Sarode

Vs

Sahebrao Kamlakar Pawar & Ors.

ORDER BELOW EXH.05

Perused the application and heard learned advocate for the plaintiff. Also perused documents produced on record and affidavit filed on record. Taking into consideration facts of this case and submissions of learned advocate, it appears to me that, before passing any ad-interim ex parte injunction against defendants, it would be just to give them an opportunity for filing say. Thus, issue show cause notice to defendants as to why ex-parte injunction should not be granted against them.
