Election Petition No.10/2021
Vikram Raut Vs. Election Officer & Ors.

ORDER BELOW EXH.1

1. Applicant and learned counsel for applicant is absent when repeatedly called till 04.30 p.m.
2. Perused the record. This is an application filed for inquiry and to cancellation of election. On perusal of record, it appears that since long applicant is absent.
3. Thereafter, for almost many dates this application was pending without progress. Applicant did not take pain to take steps despite sufficient opportunities for the reason best known to them. Thereafter, on 17/02/2026, the application was kept for dismissal order despite of that applicant did not turned to proceed with the application. It appears that applicant has lost interest in the application, therefore, he remained continuously absent. It appears that applicant is absent without any just cause. No application on behalf of applicant is filed on record. In these circumstances, I do not find any reason for adjourning the case any further. Considering all the above grounds, I pass the following order.

ORDER

1. The application is dismissed in default.
2. Applicant to bear the entire costs of the application.
