

TC 2727/2025

STATE Vs. UMESH PRASAD

E-challan Details: 49502582 -- DL1LY9630

18.05.2026

Lawyers are abstaining from work today.

Present: Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
None for the accused.

Warrants were returned unexecuted with the report that no person by the name of the accused resides at the given address.

Thereafter, T.I. Khajuri was directed to file the fresh address of the accused on two occasions and same address of the accused has been filed.

Since the present challan is already five years old and despite several efforts, the accused could not be traced, this court does not think that any fruitful purpose would be served by issuing processes on the same address indefinitely.

Therefore, considering the heavy pendency of challans and already over burdened state resources, in the interest of justice, present challan is being put up for withdrawal by T.I. concerned on 26.05.2026.
