

29.05.2026

Present: Sh. Neeraj Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the petitioner.
Sh. Shakeel Ahmed, Ld. Counsel for respondents
no. 1 & 2 through VC.
Sh. Ram Murti, Ld. Counsel for respondent no. 3.

Matter is listed for report of Ld. LC. It is submitted that the evidence is pending before Ld. LC.

An application under Section 151 CPC is filed on behalf of the petitioner alongwith additional evidence by way of affidavit and documents. Copy already supplied. Arguments heard.

Ld. Counsel for the petitioner submits that this is an outstation matter and by way of this application, he seeks to file the certified copy of the criminal record which is essential for proving the case of the petitioner. Further, the additional affidavit has been filed for proving the said documents on record. Hence, it is submitted that the application may be allowed.

Ld. Counsel for respondents no. 3 has submitted that the application is not maintainable under Section 151 CPC as there is a specific provision under Order 7 Rule 14 CPC, which is applicable where additional documents are to be filed.

Perused.
