

Order on Bail Application in SCC No. 460/2020
State Vs. Devlal

The accused has filed this e-application u/s 437 of the Cr. P. C. for release him on bail. He is alleged commission of offence u/s 65 (e) of Bombay Prohibition Act. He submitted that has not committed any type of offence. Charge sheet is filed. There is no purpose to keep him behind bar. He is ready to abide all condition which will impose by this court. Therefore he requested to release him on bail.

2. Accused is residing in jurisdiction of this court. The principle of law is that bail is a rule and jail is in exceptional circumstances. Considering above facts in my view this case not comes under exceptional circumstances. Therefore, it is just and proper to release accused on bail. Consequently I pass following order.

ORDER

1. The application is allowed subject to following conditions.

- a) He shall furnish P.B. and S.B. of Rs. 25,000/- each along with residential proof and contact number.
- b) He shall present before court.

If accused failed to abide aforesaid conditions his bail will be canceled.
