

C.C.No.3344/2017

Order below Exhibit-1

Peruse the record of the case. Police has filed charge sheet against the accused for the offence under sec. 379,114 of I.P.Code.

The complainant was present before this Court and filed a pursis that he is willing to withdraw the complaint.

Looking the provisions of Sec.320 of Cr.P.Code regarding the nature of the offence. It shows that the offence is compoundable at the instance of complainant. Herein the present case complainant has catagarically metioned that he is not willing to proceed further.

It is further pertinent to metion here that accused is not present before this Court. But it is settled position of law that presence of accused before the Court is not necessary to record the submission of the complainant to withdraw the case, as it is at the instance of the complainant only.

V G Rana-Addl.Chief Metro. Magistrate, Court No. 23, Ahmedabad.

Hence, it is hereby ordered to record pursis and thereby disposed off the case. It is further ordered to acquit the accused for the offence. Office is directed to re-call process, if any, issued against the accused without executing it further.

Interim order,if any, passed for handing over muddamal shall be considered as final.

If the muddamal is still lying at police station, the station officer is directed to handover it to the owner, after due varification. Registry is directed to send Yadi to concern police station immediately.

Today pronounced in the Lok Adalat on June 26th, 2022.

(Virendrasinh Gemalsinh Rana)
Additional Chief Metro. Magistrate,
Court No.23
GJ00964