State of Haryana VS Brahamanand S/o Ramlal HR20-AC-9519 etc.

Present: APP for the State.
None for the accused.

Notice issued to the accused received back unserved. In the present case, notices were issued several times to procure his presence but the presence of accused could not be procured despite several sincere efforts of the Court. From the perusal of the report on the warrant, it reveals that it is not possible to procure the presence of accused. Issuance of further warrants/notices against the accused shall be sheer wastage of time and no fruitful purpose would be served rather it will be unnecessary burden upon the State Exchequer.

In these circumstances, the proceedings of the present case are hereby stopped under Section 258 Cr.P.C with the condition that if at any stage accused appears or whereabouts/address of accused come into the knowledge of prosecution, in that eventuality, on the application of either party, the matter shall be re-opened.

A red ink note be also given on the file to the effect that it shall not be destroyed and the same shall be re-summoned as and when directed by the Court. File be consigned to the record room after due compliance.
