

ORDER BELOW EXH.115 IN Spl.C.S. NO. 28/2017

01. Plaintiffs have filed the present application under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure for Police protection.

02. Plaintiffs submitted that the application of temporary injunction has been allowed and defendants have been restrained from causing obstruction in the possession of plaintiffs over the suit land as well as restrained to create third party interest in the suit property. However the defendants are disobeying said order and causing the obstruction in the peaceful possession of the plaintiffs over the suit property. Therefore plaintiffs prayed for Police protection for the execution of order of temporary injunction. As per record till today defendants have failed to file say on the application in spite of sufficient opportunity .

03. As per order below Exh. 5 the court has observed that prima-facie plaintiffs have proved their lawful possession over the suit property and protected the plaintiff's possession by granting the order of temporary and injunction against the defendants. Even though as per the submission of plaintiffs, defendants are causing the obstruction to the possession of plaintiffs while cultivating the suit land, therefore present application. Defendants have failed to oppose the application. Thus application is unchallenged. Hence considering the reason mentioned in the application to facilitate the plaintiffs to cultivate the suit land without any obstruction this application deserves to be allowed. Therefore in the interest of justice I proceed to pass the following order.
