

R.C.S./88/2026
Ashok Vs. Babasaheb

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT- 1

01. This is a suit for declaration and injunction.

02. Today plaintiff and defendant appeared along with their learned advocates and filed compromise petition at Exh.18 . Identity of the parties is given by their respective counsels. Contents of compromise petition Exh-18 read over to the parties present to which they admitted to be true and correct. The content of the compromise petition are legal and valid. As the matter is settled in view of the compromise petition at Exh. 18 between the parties, I do not find any hurdle to accept their compromise. Hence following order;

ORDER

1. The suit is disposed off as compromised between plaintiff and defendant in view of compromise petition at Exh. 18.
2. Compromise petition shall form the part of the decree.
2. Compromise decree be drawn accordingly.
