Order below Exh.34.

(Dt. 23-07-2025)

1] This is an application to set aside no cross-examination order passed against insurance company. The claimant gave no objection to set aside without cross-examination order passed against insurance company.

2] Heard the learned Advocate for the claimant and learned Advocate for the insurance company.

3] Perused the application. It is pertinent to note that the claimant has given no objection to set aside the no cross-examination order passed against the insurance company. Considering reason mentioned in the application as well as no objection given by the claimant, I am inclined to pass the following order.

Order

1. Application is allowed.
2. No cross-examination order passed against the Insurance Company is hereby set aside.
3. The Insurance Company is permitted to cross-examine the claimant.
