Macchindra Pawar and ors.
Vs.
State of Maharashtra.

:-ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT 06 :-
(Passed on 06.03.2026)

01. This application is filed U/s.430 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (the BNSS) for suspension of the sentence awarded by the Learned Trial Court. By filing this application, the accused submitted that, in view of the impugned Judgment, passed on 30.01.2026, the Ld. Trial Court convicted them for the offences punishable U/s. 324, 323 of the IPC and imposed the fine. As such, they already paid the fine of Rs.12,000/-. They have the very good case on merits and therefore, till the decision of the present appeal, the substantive sentence, awarded by the learned Trial Court, may be suspended. Learned APP objected this application and asked for its rejection. Heard. Considering their submissions, at the outset, it is worth to be noted that, feeling hurt by the impugned Judgment of conviction, the accused already preferred the Appeal. The record shows that, while filing the appeal, inadvertently, they just forgot to apply for suspension of their sentence and today, by taking the case on board, they moved this application. Needless to say that, in case their prayer for suspension is not considered, very purpose of filing this appeal would be futile. More so, the appeal would take its own time. In the circumstances, to facilitate their right to file this appeal and to contest the same on its merits, the application needs to be allowed. Hence, the order :

:- O R D E R :-

01. The application (Exhibit 6) is allowed. Accordingly, the effect and operation of the impugned Judgment of conviction is hereby stayed till disposal of the appeal or till passing of further Orders, whichever occurs earlier, subject to the condition that the accused shall furnish PB and SB of Rs.25,000/- each, with undertaking to attend this appeal regularly.

02. Inform accordingly, to the concerned Court.
