ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT 52.

(Passed on 23.02.2026)

01. Perused the application, say of the claimants and the record. Heard. By this application, opponent No.2 wanted to place the copies of Authority Letter, executed in favour of Sachin Vinayakrao Japulkar, dtd. 23.12.2025, and a format of Insurance Policy, being issued by opponent No.2 in routine course of its business. It also prayed for exhibition of the said documents. In reply, the claimants objected this application. Heard. Considering the rival submissions, it is to be noted that this Death Claim Petition is filed U/s. 166 of the M.V. Act by LRs. of late Narayan Wayal, who died in the vehicular accident of dtd.19.12.2015. The record reveals that despite due services, opponent Nos. 1 and 3 didn't prefer to contest this petition. Whereas, opponent No.2 denied the same as per its detailed written statement vide Exhibit 23. Therein, it contended that this Vehicle bearing No. MH-29-3692 was never registered with it on 19.12.2015. In addition, after 26.01.2013, this vehicle wasn't insured with it and hence, it was not responsible to pay this compensation. In view of such defence, now, it wishes to place the copies of the said Authority Letter and format of Insurance Policy, issued by opponent No.2. Certainly, this production would assist effective adjudication of this claim. Presently, this petition is awaiting evidence of opponent No. 2 and therefore, this production can be considered on record. However, coming to exhibition of these copies, opponent No.2 is still to prove contents thereof and hence, it would not be appropriate to get 'exhibited' the same, straight way in absence of any evidence. In the circumstances, to achieve the ends of justice in a better prospect, I am of the view that the application, as far as the production is concerned, needs to be allowed. Hence, the Order:

-: ORDER :-

01. The application (Exhibit 52) is partly allowed. Accordingly, opponent No.2 is permitted to file copies of the Authority Letter and format of Insurance Policy on record.
02. Parties to expedite this petition.
03. Costs in cause.
