

C.MISC 122/24

Case called out in the morning session the petitioner and his counsel absent. Case again called out at 3.30 p.m. Parties absent. Again case called out at 4.45 p.m. Case again called out at 5.40 no representation is made. In spite of grant of more than sufficient time, the petitioner failed to lead evidence. Today also there is no representation counsel for petitioner and petitioner absent. Hence, it appears that the petitioner is dis-interested in proceeding with the case. Hence, the present petition is dismissed for non prosecution.

Sd/-

Ayishabi P Majid

PCJ & JMFC., HUNSUR