

OMP (I) (COMM) 131/2025
HDFC Bank Ltd. Vs. Vineet Dhull

31.01.2025

Fresh petition under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 received through e-filing by way of random allocation by computer. It be checked and registered as per rules.

Present: Sh. Anish Bhola and Ms. Parul Mahajan Bhola,
Ld. Counsels for petitioner.

Hard copy of petition and other documents filed today.
The petition is found accompanied by statement of truth and court fee.
Let Reader to report regarding adequacy of court fee.

The present petition is also found accompanied with an application under Section XL r/w Section 151 CPC with Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 seeking an ex-parte ad-interim order for appointment of Receiver.

However, during course of arguments on above application, it is stated by Ld. Counsel for petitioner that this petition is to be withdrawn due to some technical defects.

Statement of Ld. Counsel for petitioner to this effect has been recorded separately.

Hence, in view of the above statement and submissions made by Ld. Counsel for petitioner, the present petition is being dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to file it afresh as prayed for.

File be consigned to Record Room after due compliance

(M. K. Nagpal)
District Judge, Commercial Court-13
Central District, Tis Hazari Courts,
Delhi/31.01.2025