Shri Aawaji Siddha Maharaj -V/s-

Sanjay Laxman Yeul

ORDER BELOW EXH. 147

Perused application, say and record. Heard learned advocate of both parties. Present application is filed by the learned advocate of complainant contending that for granting adjournment. The representative of complainant is not feeling well due to son stroke. The learned advocate of accused filed say and strongly opposed the application contending that, there is no medical certificate filed on record. The complainant is prolonging the matter to harass the accused.

It appears from record that, representative of complainant led evidence by filing evidence. The case is old one. It also appears from record that, due to absence of accused effective progress of case is held-up for some period.

So, considering the facts and circumstances on record and ground of application, last chance is granted with direction to produce medical certificate on next date. If complainant fails to led evidence henceforth, then further necessary orders will be passed.
