ORDER BELOW EXH. 152

1. Perused application and record. Present application filed by advocate of complainant for granting adjournment contending that, complainant has to file on record order passed by the Hon'ble High Court in Writ Petitions alleged in the notice to admit documents. It is further contention of advocate of complainant that, representative of complainant went at Buldana for meeting and due to which, he can not remain present.
2. Advocate of accused filed say and strongly opposed to the application. It is the contention of advocate of accused that, on last date adjournment was granted to the complainant with specific direction to remain present today. But in spite of that, present application filed by the complainant. He lastly prayed for rejection of application.
3. It appears from record that, today advocate of complainant filed notice to admit vide Exh. 150 and advocate of accused given reply vide Exh. 151 to the said notice. It also appears from record that, on last date as per order below Exh. 147 last chance was granted to complainant with direction to produce medical certificate on record in respect of contention made in the said application. It is further directed that, complainant failed to lead evidence then further necessary order will be pass.
4. Present case is old one. In spite of specific directions, representative of complainant is not present today. As per directions passed in order blow application Exh. 147, complainant has filed on record medical certificate. In respect of the contention that, complainant wants to file on record order passed by the Hon'ble High Court in the writ petitions alleged in notice to admit at Exh. 150, it appears to me that, those alleged copies of order, complainant can file at any stage in the case and so the said grounds is not to differ the cross examination of complainant.

5. Considering facts and circumstances on reocrd and also to grant fair opportunity of trial, today's date is adjourned, subject to cost of Rs. 500/- (Rs. Five Hundred) only.
