

Cr CASES 2629/2026STATE Vs. VIKASH DAWAR298/2025
(LajpatNagar)

08.04.2026

Fresh charge sheet received from Centralized Counter. It be checked and registered.

Present: Mr. Sandeep Kumar Bhati, Ld. APP for State.
Accused in person.

Heard. Perused.

Having heard the parties as well as Ld APP for the State, this Court finds that the disposition worked out mutually by the parties is fair and just in the present case.

The accused has admitted his guilt and wants to avail the benefit of Chapter XXIII of BNSS by Plea Bargain and this Court is prima-facie satisfied that the charge against him is well-founded.

In view of plea of guilty made by the accused, he is convicted for the offence U/s 285 BNS.

ORDER ON SENTENCE

Heard on the point of sentence. It is submitted that a chance be given for reintegration of the convict in the society by taking a lenient view.

Therefore, in the totality of the facts and circumstances as revealed on record, the convict stands admonished.

Put up the matter before National Lok Adalat on 09.05.2026.

(RAHUL JAIN)
JMFC-01 (South-East):Saket Courts
New Delhi : 08.04.2026