ORDER BELOW EXH.19

The plaintiff in counter-claim has filed application for grant of permission to produce document as per list at Exh.20. Ld. advocate for the plaintiff in counter-claim submitted that the said document is material and necessary for the fair trial and adjudication of matter on merits.

2. Defendant has filed no objection to this application. Heard both parties at length.

3. On going through the facts of the case and document filed as per list at Exh.20, it seems that the production of document will facilitate the adjudication of the matter on merit. The defendant has opportunity on rebuttal. Therefore, no prejudice will be cause to the defendant if production of document is allowed. Accordingly, I pass following order.

ORDER

1. The application for production of document is allowed.
2. No order as to costs.
