

CNR.No.MHCH01-001673-2025

Order below Exh.58

1. The applicant–accused Akshay Sanju Shirke, who is presently in judicial custody in connection with the present Sessions Case, has moved an application seeking temporary release to attend the funeral rites of his grandmother.

2. Considering the nature of the request, the relationship disclosed, and the immediate necessity of performing last rites, this Court is of the view that limited indulgence can be granted, subject to strict safeguards to ensure that the applicant remains in custody and does not misuse liberty.

3. Hence, the following order:

:: ORDER ::

1. The application is partly allowed.
2. The Superintendent of the concerned Jail and concerned police station are directed to release the applicant–accused under police escort solely for the purpose of attending the funeral rites of his grandmother.
3. The applicant shall be permitted to attend the funeral and associated last rites for a limited period of 5 hours on today dt.24.04.2026 between 3.00 pm to 8.00 pm.

4. During the said period:

The applicant shall remain under continuous custody and supervision of the escorting police officers;

He shall not be allowed to interact with any person except to the extent necessary for performing funeral rites;

5. He shall not leave the specified place of funeral.

6. The Police Station Officer, Police Station City, Chandrapur shall make necessary arrangements for adequate escort and ensure strict compliance of this order.

7. Immediately after completion of the permitted period, the applicant shall be brought back and lodged in jail without any delay.

8. The jail authorities and escorting officers shall ensure that no law and order situation arises and the movement of the accused is conducted with due security.

9. The application stands disposed of accordingly.

10. Inform the Jail Authority and Superintendent of Police, Chandrapur and the concerned police station immediately.

11. Upload this order immediately.
