

CRIMINAL REVISION APPLICATION NO. No.14/2026

Navkar Go Shala Panjrapole, Dhule Versus
The State of Maharashtra & others.

Order below Exh.04

1. The present revision petition is filed by the petitioner Navkar Go Shala Panjrapole, Dhule against the order passed by Ld. Magistrate (Court no.03), Dhule in Cri. Misc. Application No.105/2026 dated 23.02.2026.
2. The petitioner has also filed application below Exh.04 for the relief of stay to the aforestated order
3. Heard the Ld. Mr. N. P. Mehta for petitioner. Perused the interim application coupled with main petition order of Ld. Magistrate and document placed reliance by petitioner whereby prima-facie inclined the petitioner has disputed the order of Ld. Magistrate dated 23.02.2026 passed in Cri. Misc. Application No.105/2026. Whereby the application preferred by the respondent/original accused is pleased to allowed subject to following conditions by him. It shows the Ld. Magistrate has directed to petitioner to hand over the interim custody of sized four (04) bullocks in the custody of respondent/accused, upon furnishing indemnity bond of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rs. One Lakh only) maintenance amount and by following other conditions. In that regard the submission of petitioner is the impugned order passed by the Ld. Magistrate is ex-facie without application of prescribed norms and law laid down. There is clear breach of provision of Section 8(3) of The Maharashtra Animal Preservation Act, 1995. the document placed reliance by the accused before the Ld. Trial Court and especially plea, submission raised by him in para 03 of his main application raised before the Ld. Magistrate would crystalized that he has submitted that the alleged four bullocks were not useful for the purpose of cultivation of field. Therefore, he was intended to alienate the same and purchased new bullocks instead of said four bullocks. For which they have obtained required mandatory medical examination certificate seized four (04) bullocks from the Rajasthan. Upon considering the said asserted fact in application before Ld. Magistrate prima-facie it transpired there is arising smoke of suspicion with regard to conduct, demeanor, behave of the accused in view of raising irrelevant submission for having physical custody of said seized four bullocks. Further considering the grounds raised in main petition coupled with interim application prima-facie would reveal there is justified substance in the submission of petitioner. The petitioner is a registered social institution with the Trust Authority. In such eventualities, circumstances considering the grievance raised by the petitioner record, material availed and especially the contents of order of Ld. Magistrate I felt this is fit case for having ad-interim relief asked by the petitioner. Moreover, upon granted ad-interim relief to petitioner in absence of respondents i.e. State and accused no any hurdle, miscarriage of justice or any loss would cause to any else. With this pass the following order -
